Featured Soloists

Musician 1st Class Wesley Mayhew, bass trombone, is a native of Glasgow, Kentucky. He received a bachelor's degree from Western Kentucky University and a master's degree from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. Prior to his appointment as bass trombonist with the U.S. Coast Guard Band in 2008, Wesley performed with the Cincinnati and Indianapolis Symphony Orchestras, the Nashville Symphony, and the Louisville Orchestra, and was a freelance musician and teacher throughout Kentucky, Indiana, Tennessee, Ohio, and West Virginia. In Kentucky, Wesley maintained a regular position as bass trombonist with the Bowling Green Chamber Orchestra and the Kentucky Symphony Orchestra. He has also been featured as a guest soloist with many groups including the WKU Wind Ensemble, the Larry A. Ryle High School Wind Ensemble, and the Southern Kentucky Concert Band. His primary trombone teachers and musical influences include Peter Norton, David Vining, Ken Haddix, and Jim Beckel.

Since joining the USCG Band in 2010, Musician 1st Class Megan Weikleenget, soprano, has performed for audiences across the United States. A versatile performer, MU1 Weikleenget has showcased musical styles ranging from Classical to Musical Theater to Jazz. She has performed at the International World Symphonic Band Conference in Chiayi City, Taiwan and the renowned National Theater and Concert Hall in Taipei, Taiwan. She has also been a soloist with The Collegiate Chorale, The Dessoif Choir, and The Berkshire Bach Society with conductor James Bagwell.

MU1 Weikleenget holds a Bachelor of Music degree in vocal performance and music education from The Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam and a Master of Music degree in vocal performance from New England Conservatory. In 2010, she attended Bard College's Vocal Arts Program (Red Hook, NY), under the direction of Dawn Upshaw and Kayo Iwama. In 2009, MU1 Weikleenget made her Carnegie Hall debut through the Composing Song Workshop conducted by Ms. Upshaw and Osvaldo Golijov. Her teachers include Dr. Deborah Massell and Patricia Misslin. Off the stage, Megan enjoys spending time with her husband Ethan and their children.
